

First Grade-Language Arts
2010-2011

Course description :

Children learn to use the English language through total immersion with real life experiences such as role playing and story telling. Reading and writing are taught using a structured reading series, Harcourt Trophies.

Objectives:

- Students can construct and write clear sentences using correct spacing, punctuation, grammar and some conventional spelling words.
- Students can communicate their ideas in English.
- Students will read a variety of texts including the most frequently used words.
- Students will construct meaning through text.

Content:

- Writing in a variety of styles
- Reading a variety of genres
- Spelling words
- Frequent sight words
- Show and Tell
- Sharing books in author's chair
- Journal writing
- Workbooks
- Book in a bag
- Collaborative group work

Assessment:

Trimester report cards